

ALAN MCLAUGHLIN

COO, Director

Mr. McLaughlin was a co-founder of Network Creative Group, LLC and served as the Chief Operating Officer for BlueHighways TV, a nationally distributed cable television network focusing on American roots music from 2003 – 2017. He managed all day-to-day financial, programming, production and business operations including Affiliate Relations and Business Affairs. Mr. McLaughlin has managed production departments for several independent cable networks and production facilities and has more than thirty years of distinguished production credits to his name, managing hundreds of hours of live and recorded television programs on the local and national level. Mr. McLaughlin has worked in all facets of television production and management from his years as a Production Manager at a PBS affiliate to managing 14 hours a day of live television simultaneously at a shopping channel and WB affiliate, to running a nationally distributed cable/satellite network.