

Canyon Star TV

LeAnn Skeens, Executive Assistant

LeAnn Skeens is a visionary who works collaboratively with thought leaders, founders, and corporate executives across a broad spectrum of creative industries comprising: Arts and Entertainment, Commercial Photography, Writing & Publishing, R&D as well as Marketing.

With over 20+ years experience in Visual Communications, LeAnn has served as a consultant with various start-ups, bringing her expertise to product launching and go-to market strategies. She has successfully led teams of artists, photographers, graphic and web designers as well as production assistants on editorial and commercial shoots.

LeAnn holds Philanthropy initiatives close to her heart. Prior to coming onboard Canyon Star TV , she created The DreamBuilding GPS Program, which is a division of the Healing Hearts Center that she founded in 2015. Through art, music, writing and creative expression - women come together from around the globe to encourage and support one another to reach their full potential while creating a positive impact in the world.
